

RAILROADS FILE SUITS AGAINST ADAMSON LAW

Attack On Constitutionality of 8-Hour Law Begins

Department of Justice Lays Plans to Defend Law—Roads Claim Act Unconstitutional and Incapable of Enforcement.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Suits by railroads attacking the constitutionality of the 8-hour railroad law were begun today in many parts of the country and the department of justice laid plans to defend them. Assistant Attorney General Underwood will have direct charge of the government's defense, and Frank Hagerman of Kansas City, Mo., has been retained to assist him.

Information so far reaching the department shows the railroads base their prayers for temporary restraining orders against the law becoming effective on the ground that it is unconstitutional and incapable of enforcement. The government will resist those contentions and assert that congress had ample power to enact such legislation.

Lawyers familiar with federal procedure explained that in any of the district courts where test suits are brought, the district judge might call in one or two district or circuit judges to sit with him in the case. After a decision by such a court, it was said that an appeal could be taken direct to the supreme court without delay for its consideration by a circuit court of appeals.

Should a test case or cases be appealed to the supreme court it was believed here the court would advance Adamson act proceedings for early hearing and decision.

Some of the railroad brotherhood leaders are expected here within a day or two to prepare for their appearance before the congressional committee making a broad investigation into the transportation problem and it is probable that they will see President Wilson.

The statement of Samuel Gompers that the law would go into effect "injunction or no injunction" and the statement of W. S. Carter, head of the Locomotive Firemen and Engineers denying that a strike had been threatened if the law were not enforced, has attracted attention among federal officials.

Will Furnish Interpretation.
New York, Nov. 15.—Suits filed by railroads against the federal government to test the constitutionality of the Adamson 8-hour law, also are expected to result in the interpretation of the statute if it is upheld the railroad managers comprising the National Conference committee of railways announced in a statement here tonight. Suits designed to test the validity of the law and to restrain the government from putting it into effect were filed in this city today by the New York Central and Erie railroads.

Similar suits are to be brought within the next few days by each railroad in the country in each of the federal districts it traverses according to Elisha Lee, chairman of the conference committee.

Mr. Lee issued a statement at the end of the committee's three day secret session explaining the railroad's program in their fight against the law. The statement in part follows:

"Two questions are involved in the appeal by the railroads to the courts for light on the Adamson law:
"1.—Is the law constitutional?
"2.—If it is constitutional, what does it mean?
"Opinions have been expressed by eminent authorities that the law is unconstitutional and there are conflicting opinions as to how the law, if constitutional should be applied.

"If the law is declared constitutional, it is expected that the courts will make clear its meaning, and the railroads, it is unnecessary to say will faithfully follow the instructions of the courts.
"The railroads are anxious to have a speedy decision on the points at issue. These separate suits are necessary to protect the individual roads. A single suit would protect the individual road only in the particular jurisdiction in which the test case was brought and would leave all roads subject to prosecution in other jurisdictions."

Judge Julius M. Mayer in the federal district court here tonight signed an order directing the defendants to show cause why temporary injunctions restraining them from enforcing the Adamson law should not be issued. This order was signed on application of the New York Central and the Erie railroads. Argument on the order was set provisionally for December 2nd, so that the defendants might have an opportunity to communicate with the attorney general of the United States.

HIGHER PRICES FOR CIGARS PREDICTED

Greater Demand and Raise in Wage
Scale Given As Causes of Expected Advance.

New York, Nov. 15.—Higher prices for cigars were forecast in a statement made public here tonight by Fred Hirschhorn, president of the Cigar Manufacturers' association of America, dealing with the problems of the cigar industry.

Mr. Hirschhorn declared advancing prices are inevitable owing to the jump from 50 to 60 per cent in the cost of raw leaf tobacco, the demand being greater than the supply and the increased scale of wages that has drawn many cigar makers to other trades.

ADMIT SUBMARINE MENACE INCREASING

Discussion of German U-Boats Comes
Up in House of Lords.

London, Nov. 15.—The matter of the destruction of British shipping by German submarines came up in the house of lords this afternoon. Baron Sidenham invited the government to make a declaration in the nature of a "ton for ton" policy in behalf of Great Britain and her allies as a reply to "the monstrous proceedings" of the German submarines.

He declared there was an uneasy feeling in the country that the submarine menace was more serious than the authorities were willing to admit.

Admiral Lord Beresford said Great Britain had arrived at a serious crisis calling for energy and foresight. It was time for speaking.

"Had the blockade been properly enforced from the first," he asserted, "we should not have been faced by this submarine menace."

The Marquis of Crewe, Lord President of the council, replying for the government said it was useless to make such declarations as Lord Sidenham and Beresford demanded, without the power to enforce them. The only voices which would speak with influence now were the voices of the cannon on the various fronts.

The admiralty, continued the lord president, had been singular successful in the destruction of enemy submarines, but the difficulties in dealing with this menace had increased. The Earl of Lytton, civil lord of the admiralty having denied that the fleet had departed from its traditional policy of seeking out and destroying the enemy, the subject was dropped.

SUFFRAGE VOTE WILL CHANGE ALL PRECINCTS

Woman's Vote in Springfield Will Necessitate Changing Location of Voting Places.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 15.—Special. Every precinct in this city will be changed as a result of the heavy suffrage vote at the last election. The precincts are supposed to be divided in accordance to the polling vote, and the woman's vote greatly placed the present location of the voting places completely out of proportion.

The suffrage vote was the largest since the allowing of the women to vote.

BRING NO CHANGES IN UNOFFICIAL RESULTS

Vote In Close Congressional Districts Canvassed

Incomplete Canvasses Indicate Republicans Will Have 217, the Democrats 212, and other Parties 6 members in Sixty Fifth Congress.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Incomplete canvasses of the vote in several close congressional districts today brought no changes in the unofficial election results which indicate that 217 Republicans, 212 Democrats and six of other parties have been elected to the sixty fifth congress. Representative Doremus, chairman of the Democratic national committee still claims, however, that Democrats will make gains on the final returns in six or seven of the close districts which apparently have elected Republicans by small majorities.

Representative Woods, chairman of the Republican committee insisted tonight that the Republicans would control the lower house. Prospects of a Republican gain were apparent in the thirty-second Pennsylvania district where the canvass of all Pittsburgh precincts today showed Representative Barchfield leading Guy Campbell his Democratic opponent by twelve votes. On the official returns Campbell lead Barchfield by 19 votes. Country precincts still are to be canvassed.

SUGGEST METHODS FOR POLICY AGAINST WAR

Two Resolutions Placed Before American Federation of Labor.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 15.—Two methods for employment by the United States in a policy of preparation against war are set forth in resolutions pressed before the convention here of the American Federation of Labor and which the committee on international relations had under consideration today. A resolution introduced by Al Reich of the Texas Federation of Labor, urges the establishment of a commercial union between the United States and the South and Central American republics.

To this end the resolution favors the issuing of bonds by the United States government to finance steamship lines to engage in commerce among the countries composing such union and the extension of credits or loans to such countries as may require them in order that they may be enabled to participate in the management thereof.

The establishment and maintenance by the American Federation of Labor in conjunction with the labor bodies of other countries, of an international congress of labor for the hearing and discussion of the causes of disagreement between two or more nations is provided for in a resolution introduced by H. M. McLaren of the federal employees' union. It is decided that the deliberations of this congress shall lead to execution of such political action by the workers as will bring to the attention of the governmental representatives of such nations "the expediency of settlement, diplomatic means."

SWITCHMEN TESTIFY BEFORE BOARD

Witnesses Assert Some Railroad
Switchmen Average 14 and 14
Hours a Day.

New York, Nov. 15.—Instances where railroad switchmen worked 14 and 15 hours a day and fell asleep after eating lunch, causing them to lose their jobs when they failed to return on time, were cited later today by F. L. Eggleston, a switchman in the New York Central yards at Buffalo, N. Y., before the board of arbitration in the controversy between the switchmen's union and thirteen railroads over the demands of the men for an eight hour day and higher pay.

Eggleston testified he averages 12 hours a day and that he does not see his little son awake for weeks at a time. Some jobs in the Buffalo yards, he asserted, average 14 and 15 hours.

B. B. Duschane, a foreman employed in Detroit by the Michigan Central testified that by working three hours a day overtime he is able to bring his earnings to a basis where he can support his family. He calculated that if he worked ten hours a day for 365 days a year, he would receive as foreman $1,387 for the year. A helper, he said, would earn $1,247.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION IN CUBA STILL IN DOUBT

New Elections May be Necessary Before Result is Known.

Havana, Nov. 15.—Two weeks after the presidential election in Cuba the result is as much in doubt as ever. It is possible that the country will not know whether President Menocal has been re-elected by the conservative party, of former Vice-President Alfredo Zayas, the Liberal candidate has triumphed, until new elections are held in Victoria de las Tunas, Oriente province. These elections will not take place until February.

The delay in official figures on the presidential election in the United States has done much to calm excitement here as it was charged that the government was resorting to fraud to defeat Zayas.

MAY REACH AGREEMENT BEFORE END OF WEEK

May Cover Withdrawal of U. S.
Punitive Expedition and Method of Border Control.

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 15.—Unless new and unexpected opposition develops, members of the Mexican-American joint commission believed tonight an agreement covering the withdrawal of the American punitive expedition and a method of border control will be ready by the end of the week for submission to the two governments. Announcement that an agreement was in sight was made by Ignacio Bonillas one of the Mexican representatives, at the close of a session that had lasted until night.

The altered attitude of the Mexicans indicated by the announcement, developed at the second session today, altho it was not attended by Luis Cabrera, chairman of the Mexican commission, who did not return from Philadelphia until late tonight. He was accompanied here by Ambassador-designate Arredondo and Mrs. Arredondo. No significance seemed to be attached to the coming of the ambassador since it has been known for some time that he had planned to spend a brief holiday here shortly before the adjournment of the commission.

Altho Mr. Cabrera has not been here since he manifested his opposition to the plan that was sanctioned Monday by his colleagues, it is known the other Mexicans were in telegraphic communication with him today.

NOT CONTRACT VIOLATION TO INCREASE RATES

Court Holds Increases in Insurance
Rates Justified to Insure Completion of Contract.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 15.—Three thousand policy holders in Iowa dropped out of the Ancient Order of United Workmen when its insurance rates were raised, will be unable to collect the money they have paid the lodge in premiums if the decision handed down in the district court by Judge C. A. Dudley is sustained.

The court held it was not a violation of contract to increase rates and that the increase was justified to insure the completion of the contract, county to serve summons on some of the older members of the organization.

In May rates were increased considerably on 2,000 policies of a certain class. Most of the policy holders were old men who could not afford to pay the increase.

WORK OF SECURING JURY CONTINUES

New Panel of Talesmen Ordered
Prawn in Trial of Oscar McDaid, Alleged Wife Slayer.

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 15.—A new panel of twenty talesmen was drawn here late today under orders from Judge Thomas F. Ryan of criminal court to insure the completion, perhaps tomorrow, of the special venire of forty from which will be chosen the jury to try Prosecutor Oscar D. McDaniel, alleged wife murderer. Only three names remained to be added to the venire when court adjourned late today.

The original panel of eighty nine has dwindled until only six of the original number had not yet been questioned and tonight deputy sheriff scoured St. Joseph and Buchanan county to serve summons on some of the talesmen so they will be present when court convenes tomorrow.

Talesman after Talesman was disqualified today only seven being accepted. One previously obtained, however, was rejected and the net result of the day was six.

Following the completion of the venire, expected tomorrow will come the peremptory challenges, eight by the state and twenty by the defense, which the trial jury of twelve will be selected. The defense under Missouri Statute is permitted 24 hours before announcing its challenges. Judge C. F. Strop, senior counsel for McDaniel declared tonight the defense would take advantage of the full time permitted, thus delaying the naming of the trial jury until Friday at the earliest.

WILL REST IN NEW JERSEY.

New York, Nov. 15.—Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for the presidency, will leave here Friday for Kentwood, N. J., where he will rest several weeks, it was announced tonight. William R. Willcox, chairman of the national committee will accompany Mr. Hughes. Mr. Willcox, however, said he would "keep in touch" with Republican headquarters here by visiting the city several days a week.

MEXICANS RELEASE AMERICAN SCOUT

Brahan Given Freedom By Authorities At Juarez

Knows of no Reason for His Arrest and Imprisonment Other than that He Was Scout for General Pershing—
Mormon Will be Released if Bond is Furnished.

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 15.—After being in the Juarez jail since November 7th, during which time he expected to be shot as a Villa spy, Benjamin Brahan was released at military headquarters in Juarez late today and came to the American side of the river. Brahan said he knew of no reason why he was arrested other than the fact that he was a scout for General Pershing in Mexico.

"I went to Juarez to see a friend before returning to join the punitive expedition," Brahan said tonight, after reaching his hotel here. "I saw a Carranza commander on the street in Juarez whom I had known at Casas Grandes when I was with General Pershing."

"There is an American scout," he said to another officer when he saw me," Brahan continued. "I was immediately placed under arrest, taken to the jail and locked in the 'incommunicado' cell."

"I was not told officially that I was to be shot, but I was given to understand I would be executed. After Andres Garcia took an interest in my case I was treated much better."

Joseph Williams, the Mormon, will be released as soon as he is able to furnish a bond of ten thousand pesos, it was announced tonight.

BOARD CONSIDERS PROPOSE DAMENDMENTS

May Change Constitution of Baseball
League—Table Demands of Players' Fraternity.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 15.—Proposed amendments to the constitution of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues were considered at tonight's session of the fifteenth annual meeting here. Among the amendments were preparations to reduce the membership of the National board from nine to five providing for representation by the minor leagues in the national baseball commission, changes in rulings of the national board, reclassification of leagues and other matters involving relations between players and clubs.

The minor clubs at the afternoon session voted unanimously to table four demands of the Baseball Players' Fraternity submitted in writing by President David L. Fultz. The demands were as follows:

Elimination of alleged contracts permitting clubs to suspend injured players giving players the right to sign new contracts immediately after their unconditional release, allowance to minor league players of traveling expenses from their home clubs to the club's city or its spring training camp; and changes in the procedure of the national board in players' claims cases so as to give the fraternity notice of the club's defense and opportunity to reply.

CHAIRMAN ROWELL ISSUES STATEMENT

Asserts California's Politicians Suppressed and Disobeyed Instructions
From the East.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 15.—Chester H. Rowell, chairman of the Republican state central committee issued a statement today charging that the Republicans who undertook to look after Charles E. Hughes during his trip thru California not only made a bad job of it, but suppressed and disobeyed instructions from the east. The statement blames them for the loss of the state from the Republican column.

"If the advice and practically the demands of the national managers of Mr. Hughes' campaign had not been defied and suppressed by those temporarily in charge of it in California," the statement said "Mr. Hughes would now be, beyond question, president-elect of the United States."

One of the entries against him was J. Campbell Thompson, who showed almost the same four which won him the Vanderbilt trophy last year.

War News Summarized

While the British were further advancing their front of the Aeneas river or consolidating their newly won positions, the French and Germans have been engaged in violent combats both north and south of the Somme. In both regions the Germans have been engaged in violent corner and western outskirts of the St. Pierre Vast wood, north of the river, and in the eastern part of the village of Pressoire, south of the stream.

The French official communication in admitting the loss of this ground says the Germans only attained limited advantages at the price of very heavy losses. In the north the Germans attacks extended from Les Boulets to the south of Bouchavesne, a front of five miles and south of the Somme from Ablaincourt to the Chantilles wood about three miles. The attacks were launched after violent artillery preparation.

Berlin in reverting the British attack which gave them the town of Beaumont says that except at Beaumont all the British attacks broke down with heavy casualties. On the southern bank of the Aeneas the attack has already been shattered says Berlin, which adds that fighting is proceeding near Sully-Sallies and Pressoire. According to London 5,678 Germans have been made prisoners on the Aeneas front since Monday. The British losses, considering the extent of gains, are declared not to have been high.

The Transylvania front aside from the line in France is furnishing the most sanguinary engagement. Here almost everywhere the Austro-Germans are gaining ground against the Roumanians and Russians.

In the Tigris valley the British and the Teutonic allies have forced their antagonists still further back in the Dobrudja region. Bucharest reports the occupation by the Roumanians of the town of Bousiac on the Danube.

The royal palace in Bucharest has been bombarded by Teutonic allied aircraft. The queen and royal princesses were not in the building at the time.

Berlin admits that on the Cerna river bend in Serbia, the entente allies have captured some heights and that in the valley the Teutonic allied line has been drawn back in order to prevent pressure on its flanks.

In Galicia, according to the Petrograd war office, the Russians have driven Austro-Germans from former Russian trenches in the Naryvka river region. Berlin asserts however that attacks by the Russians in this vicinity were repulsed.

East of Gorizia the Austrians by a heavy bombardment have compelled the Italians to give up some of their trenches. On the Carso front the Italians have made advances at several points.

CARNEGIE FOUNDATION PAYS MANY PENSIONS

College and University Professors and Widows of Professors Receive $687,000 During Past Year.

New York, Nov. 15.—Pensions amounting to $687,000 were paid to 331 college and university professors and 127 widows of professors during the past year by the Carnegie Foundation, according to annual reports of the president and treasurer, Dr. Henry S. Pritchett and Robert A. Franks, read at the annual meeting of the trustees here today.

The report showed that the general endowment of the foundation is now $13,000,000, the accumulated surplus $1,299,000 and the income for the current year $800,000.

During the eleven years of the foundation's existence 53 professors and 152 widows, representing seventy-three institutions associated with the foundation, have received benefits aggregating $4,912,000.

William Frederick Sloeum, president of Colorado College was re-elected chairman; Arthur Twining Hadley, president of Yale, vice-chairman and Charles Franklin Thwing, president of Western Reserve University, secretary of the board.

A proposed plan for making the pension system contributory was referred to a committee. This plan, if adopted, will admit many additional teachers to the benefits of the fund, it was said.

EXPECT ACTION IN FREIGHT CAR SITUATION

Some Action for Relief of Shortage
Expected to Result from Conference in Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 15.—Drastic action for the relief of the shortage of freight cars in certain sections of the country is expected to result from the conference here Friday between a committee of five railroad presidents and Commissioner C. C. McHard. This is the belief of a majority of the railroad representatives present at hearings being held here in connection with an investigation into the exchange and return of equipment by the country's railroads.

It is the belief of railroad representatives that the committee of five presidents who will represent the American railway association will endeavor, in conjunction with Commissioner McHard to work out some temporary arrangement which will relieve the shortages of all sorts of equipment and to lay plans for such revision of the car service rules as will prevent their recurrence.

Commissioner McHard, commenting today upon the fact that many railroads were not represented at the hearings, declared it seemed he would have to take action to compel the desired representation.

BATTLE SHIP BUILDERS CONFER WITH DANIELS

Discuss Pending Contracts for Fifty-three Vessels

Conference in Washington Will be Continued Today—Navy Will not Abandon Electric Drive Project—Reasons of Attitude of Private Builders.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Representatives of the lowest bidders for ships of each type included in the big 1917 navy building program were in conference several hours today with Secretary Daniels and other navy department officials. While no conclusion was reached as to the placing of the contracts for 53 vessels, which now are pending, Mr. Daniels said later he was hopeful for an agreement within a day or two which would enable him to make the awards. The conference will be continued tomorrow. In the case of the four scout cruisers only one bid was received, that of the Seattle Construction & Drydock company. Other builders explained today that they had been unable to bring their estimates within the $5,000,000 limit of cost fixed by congress for the hull and machinery for each ship. Secretary Daniels intimated that congress would be asked to increase this limit and new bids would be sought.

Bids for battleships, destroyers, and submarines were made contingent upon modifications which render them unacceptable to the department. The bidders explained that the long time required for construction in the majority of their proposals was due to the uncertainty about prompt delivery of structural steel. Earlier in the day the department had been assured by a representative of a structural steel company that preference would be given to government orders for private or public yards. Similar statements have come from many other manufacturers.

The bidders argued against the electric propulsion system preferred by the navy experts for the four battleships. So far no private builder has undertaken to construct ships of that type but the government has under construction at its own yards three electric drive battleships. The bidders say that they doubted the ability of the electrical companies to provide the equipment for the great number of ships which are to be built within the next three years. They also said they could not be expected to guarantee the operation of machinery they did not construct themselves or face the possibility of delay in delivery of the ships thru defects in such machinery.

Secretary Daniels said he had received assurances from one electrical company that it could meet all demands made upon it by the navy. It was indicated that the department would not abandon this type of propulsion because of the attitude of the private builders since navy experts believe it greatly increases the efficiency of battle craft.

WILL BE NO LAPSE IN WILSON'S SERVICE

President Will Take Oath of Office
Sunday, March 4th—Formal Inauguration Will Take Place on Monday, March 5th

Washington, Nov. 15.—There will be no lapse in the service of Woodrow Wilson as president of the United States because March 4th, next, inauguration day falls on Sunday, according to an opinion reached at the state department. It became known today that on account of reports that a lapse would occur and that Secretary Lansing would be acting President on March 4th, a form letter explaining the law has been prepared at the state department to be sent out in answer to inquiries on the question.

While it is not expected the formal inauguration of Mr. Wilson will be held until Monday, March 5th, he will be advised by Secretary Lansing to take the oath of office on Sunday.

It is taken for granted by officials that the President following out his plans of 1913, will have no inaugural ball.

The building was destroyed to an estimated amount of $60,000. The fire originated in an older addition of the structure and was well under way before it was discovered. The children walked out of the school thinking it only a fire drill, and knew nothing of the fire until after they were out. The building was completely destroyed.

The Associated Charities
The coming winter bids fair to see much privation among the poor in the country and much aid will be necessary. There will be great need of weeding out the undeserving and seeing that the worthy are suitably provided with the necessities of life. There is doubtless no better avenue for this work than the associated charities. One is sorely tempted to dismiss a beggar with a coin and thus ease his conscience but it is not the best way. The officials of the associated charities make every effort to ascertain the needy and worthy and all one feels able to bestow will be far more wisely given thru that channel.

Congressman-Elect Rankin.
(Decatur Herald)

Miss Jeanette Rankin of Montana becomes for the time being the most interesting woman in America. From now until December 1917 she will be the subject of innumerable magazine articles and Sunday newspaper write-ups. Every suffrage organization, every children's welfare society and every feminist club will bid for her services as a speaker. Already the proposals of marriage which every mail brings her, are being heralded. At the convening of the 65th Congress Miss Rankin will take her seat and settle into the hum-drum of a typical first term, receiving unimportant committee appointments, and making five-minute speeches to which nobody will pay any particular attention unless they have that wit which appeals to the male sense of humor.

If her constituency keeps her in the House for a second term, Miss Rankin will have an opportunity to carry out her chosen mission of championing to good effect the rights of the women of the United States and securing measures that will make for their social and industrial betterment.

Miss Rankin can do a great deal for women. If she can lead them to an understanding of the inadvisability of stepping on street cars backwards, and conducting business correspondence in long hand, of abusing the department store C. O. D. privileges, she is likely to have the enthusiastic support of her colleagues regardless of party. If she can contrive to make unpopular with her sex the practice of listening in on party lines, there is no height of ambition to which she may not reasonably aspire.

Warned by the experience of other reformers, Miss Rankin, however, probably will be content to tackle simpler problems and will not try to make over human nature all at once. We may expect to see her endeavoring to right some of the injustices of long standing with which women have had to put up, because they are women, and because of custom.

She might make a start by ridding farmer wives of the thrall of cooking for threshing crews. Here would be a notable emancipation.

Want Goods Roads Now.

The action taken by people of Vermilion county in voting a large bond issue for the building of hard roads has given inspiration to the Springfield Motor club. The good roads movement in Vermilion county was influenced quite largely by the Danville motorists and the Springfield men are hopeful that they can lead in a movement which will materially aid in securing good roads for Sangamon county thru a bond issue. Representatives of the club will go to Danville to find out just the plan followed there in educating the people up to the point of enthusiasm which resulted in the bond issue. Having thus familiarized themselves with the Vermilion county way, the Springfield men expect to engage actively in the work. The bond issue is the only way of getting hard roads for the present generation. A mile or two a year is not rapid progress.

A New York Republican who recently made a six to one bet that Charles E. Hughes had been elected president of the United States had more enthusiasm than judgment. Still if Mr. Hughes gets one of Idaho's electoral votes and there should be a split in the California vote, and then errors be found elsewhere, why perhaps maybe that wouldn't be such a bad bet after all. "Hope springs eternal" in some breasts.

Poor System Brings Car Shortage
The interstate commerce commission investigation at Louisville has shown that railroad systems of handling their cars need reorganization. The reports from some roads indicated that they had more cars on their lines than they owned, while other roads were operating with from 33 to 85 per cent of their own cars. This condition is not due wholly to demurrage charge rules, but to certain systems that the roads have been following in the handling of cars. Some gross misuses of cars have grown up and until these are remedied there will come no permanent relief in the car problem.

While the shortage affects all classes of cars it has done so particularly in coal cars. The mines that are located on the Burlington have had about their usual quota from that road, which is now acknowledged to be one of the best managed systems in the country. From a coal hauling standpoint the Burlington is unexcelled in service. The secret of its success in this line is not a mere matter of having cars and locomotives and road bed, but in the system of distribution and handling the cars. Southern Illinois mines having access to the Burlington are receiving their share of cars from that road. However, these mines in most instances do not depend altogether upon the Burlington but have at least switching arrangements to two or three roads. They are not faring so well from other hands as from the Burlington.

In a federal hearing several years ago when the railroads were asked for increased freight rates Samuel Untermyer charged that the reasons for the bad financial condition of many roads could be found in the extravagance and in the lack of proper management. He declared that if the right systems of economy were used that the railroads would pay dividends and increased wages to employees without any increase in rates. There are occasional evidences that Mr. Untermyer's charges were correct, tho they apply only to individual railroad systems and not to all of them. The car shortage situation is a case in point.

"Success in business, success in life, is a matter of applying the principles to little things. We too often forget that dimes make dollars. And as waste counts up fast, so savings grow apace. If you were allowed to go over the books of any savings bank you would find hundreds of accounts that show steady, systematic saving. It may be but a dollar or two a week, but in the long run it mounts up."

The Remedy Awaited.

The federal trade commission is now investigating about the high cost of living and in due time may possibly tell the people why it is that they are now paying such high prices for all the necessities of life. Applying the remedy will be a different matter. The public would be more interested in the commission's investigation about living costs if it was not this same commission that sanctioned the organization of Illinois coal operators which made the present period of high prices more possible, altho the munition factory demand and the car shortage have been contributing causes to these high prices. Mr. Hurley of the commission has said that half the coal mined each year is wasted and that two thirds of this amount could be saved under proper operation. That statement is of little service to the people unless the way is pointed to the operators to effect these economies and the people are then given the benefit.

Has Big Platform.
The newspapers of the country are not inclined to take the election of Miss Jeanette Rankin, first congresswoman of the U. S., with a great deal of seriousness. In fact, Miss Rankin is twinned out ea-

Miss Rankin is just now the special subject of the newspaper paragraphers and humorists. But the new congresswoman should be taken seriously if her platform is considered, for she stands for national woman suffrage, child welfare work, tariff revision, nation wide prohibition and greater publicity in congressional records. Miss Rankin will find greater opposition to her congressional record principle than any other. Nobody reads the record now and to have it circulated more widely would mean just another government expense without any attending benefit. If the new congresswoman instead would put thru a plan to have the record contain only the speeches and argument actually made a real advance step would be recorded.

Economy Day.
In another part of the Journal this morning appear some suggestions about household economies. The idea is that in these unusual times economy questions become of much more than abnormal interest. From day to day suggestions gleaned from books, magazines and newspapers or coming from readers will be given space.

Not for many years has the public given so much attention to economy as is true in the present year. Because of the high price of paper or the federal government some months ago issued a request to the public to save their waste paper. Railroad corporations have adopted stricter rulings in the distribution of their ordinary supplies. Business firms, large and small, have adopted economy methods literally forced upon them because of the increased cost of doing business.

An exchange, commenting upon this condition, quotes this order which is found in the stationary stock room of a large insurance company: "Don't take the top sheet." The reason is clear, for the top sheet is soiled and dusty and must be thrown away only to leave another sheet to get in the same condition and eventually be wasted. The paper noted goes on to say: "Over the electric button in a large hotel is the request: 'We would appreciate the favor if you will turn out the light when leaving the room.' Some hotels furnish a large cake of soap for each room daily, whether the guest changes or not, the bulk of which is wasted, while other hotels furnish a small cake just large enough for a day's use. Some hotels have the heavy and costly counterpane laundered every day, while others have the maids turn the covers back each night to avoid soiling.

"The reason for these small economies is not niggardliness, but good management. Of what use is a large cake of soap when a small one answers the same purpose? Why burn the light when you are out of a room? Why soil expensive linen when a little care would prevent?"

AMERICAN SECURITIES ARE INCLUDED IN LIST

Form Collateral Behind New 30,000,000 British Loan.

New York, Nov. 15.—Gilt-edged American securities of early days, all seasoned payers of regular dividends, as well as stocks and bonds of modern vintage are included in the lists of securities made public today as the American collateral behind the new $300,000,000 British loan.

Many of the bonds in the list of securities which have a total market value of $100,000,000, have also a value as relics of the early days of American railroading, when first mortgages were placed on roads long since merged in great systems.

PERMIT TO INCORPORATE

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 15.—A permit to incorporate was issued here today to A. H. Adler, Inc., of Mt. Vernon, Ill., with a capital of $20,000 to manufacture and deal in general merchandise. The incorporators are Alfred Beck, Isador Becker, R. Aronson.

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

OLD AND OUT.

"I heard the down-and-outer say, 'I'm canned because I'm old and gray. Employers shoo me from their doors; they want young men to do their chores. I know I'm long on sterling worth, but there's no place for me on earth, no job for me beneath the moon, for I was born some years too soon. You must be served, and are must slide down where the dump is yawning wide.' I've often heard this dismal spiel from gents pandering for a meal, but in my daily walks I find that old boys do not fall behind, if they still keep their smiles on straight, and keep their habits up to date. Too many old men sing this song, that every modern thing is wrong. They're always talking of the past, and so they're also run at last. A man's gray hair will cut no grass, if he can make things come to pass, if he will blithely do his stunt with cheerful and undaunted front."

DEMOCRATS CLAIM ALL CALIFORNIA ELECTORS

Predict Lowest Democratic Elector Will Lead Highest Republican By About 600 Votes.

San Francisco, Nov. 15.—Prediction that the lowest Democratic elector in California will run ahead of the highest Republican elector was made tonight by Democratic leaders after watching the slowly augmenting returns from county clerks.

"The difference will be about 600 in favor of the Democrats," said Sidney M. VanWyck, Jr., chairman of the Democratic campaign committee. Available returns were considered in themselves not an index of the situation proportionately, because they were from smaller counties, most of which had given Wilson good majorities. They showed the lowest Democrat 14,773 ahead of the highest Republican, but nearly all the big counties still were missing.

Hughes' Plurality Now 385.

St. Paul, Nov. 15.—With forty of the eighty six counties in Minnesota having turned in their tabulation sheets to Secretary of State Schmal and with unofficial returns from the remainder including Hennepin and Ramsey, Mr. Hughes' plurality was down to 385. The total vote was: Wilson 177,786 Hughes 178,183

The sheet from Renville county made the big difference over last night's lead of more than a thousand credited to the Republican candidate. Democrats here are expressing hope that completed canvass may swing Minnesota's electoral votes into the Wilson column.

In the forty six counties, Allan L. Benson, Socialist polled 8095 and J. Frank Hanly, Prohibitionist, 3803 votes.

METHODISTS DONATE $3,000,000 TO MISSIONS

Will Push Missionary Work Especially in South America for Coming Year.

New York, Nov. 15.—Appointment of 100 missionaries for greater missionary effort in South America was urged by Bishop Homer C. Staunitz of Omaha late tonight at the session of board of foreign missions of the Methodist Episcopal church in this city. His appeal resulted in an additional application for work in South America for the coming year, bringing the total to $109,806.

Total appropriations of the Methodist Episcopal church for foreign missions this year were almost $3,000,000. It was announced tonight and the sentiment was expressed that in the near future this sum should be increased to $5,000,000 a year. The Women's Foreign missionary society contributed $1,033,770 and church collections and special gifts amounted to $1,933,256, a total of $2,967,026.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS.

Madame Henri Lavigne, wife of the Mayor of Quebec, recently gave birth to her twenty-eighth child. In spite of the generally accepted belief that such phenomenal families must necessarily militate against the accumulation of wealth, the couple, who started with only hope and talent for capital, are now the owners of the largest piano and music store in Quebec and at the head of a very comfortable fortune as well as a small army of Lavignes. The eldest son is a lieutenant in the Canadian army now serving in the war. Mme. Lavigne was married at fifteen.

General Booth, head of the Salvation army, has started a movement to care for over a million women in Great Britain by sending them to the British colonies to work pending the end of the war. The surplus of women in the old country averages about 1,300,000, while there is a corresponding surplus of men in the dominions. It is estimated that the cost of transportation of the women will be about $1,000,000, and of that amount $300,000 has been subscribed already. A thorough canvass is being made to discover what work can be found for women in the least of Britain's possessions, even the small towns and villages of South Africa being visited in the attempt. It is expected that in the majority of cases marriage and the foundation of homes will result for the women thus taken to places where women are in great demand, and correspondingly help to relieve England from its serious "spinster problem," aggravated as this has become through the war.

A reception at the executive mansion in Albany, N. Y., given by Gov. and Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, will be one of the features of the 48th annual convention of the New York State Woman Suffrage party, which is to be held in Albany from November 21 to 23, inclusive. The New York state suffrage organization is the largest in the United States, and the governor's wife is one of its most enthusiastic supporters.

Miss Jessie Daniels, principal of the Bulboa, Panama, high school, holds the most responsible educational position in the canal zone, and has made her school a social and benevolent center as well as an institute of learning. Nearly 200 students have enrolled this autumn against less than fifty-five years ago. All the students in the graded schools besides in Panama except that at Gatun come under Miss Daniels' jurisdiction. She is a native of Canton, O., and was educated at Western Reserve University. She is enthusiastic about the work, to which she has brought a patriotic fervor besides a prepossessing personality and a great deal of executive ability. She entered upon it after a visit made to one of her sisters who is married to a Zone official, during which she saw the possibilities offered there for serving Uncle Sam with intelligent patriotism.

The sketches in color for all the costumes of the magnificent Yale pageant last month were made by Miss Christine Herter, a niece of Albert Herter, the painter, and a graduate of the Yale Art school. Eight thousand costumes in all were used, and the making of these fell to the "mistress of the robes," Mrs. Dennis Cleugh, upon whose clever feminine responsibility also fell a good part of the success of the remarkable undertaking.

THREE JURORS SELECTED
Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 15.—Three jurors were selected from 43 talemens examined today in the trial of John Edward Teper, charged with the murder of his mother, Mrs. Agnes Teper, on the Orchard Park road on January 30th. An extra panel of 75 men was summoned and indications were that it might be several days before the jury is completed. Questions put to talemens my district attorney Guy P. Moore indicated that the prosecution would be built on circumstantial evidence.

MUST SOON APPOINT
FOOD CONTROLLER

President of London Board of Trade Outlines Proposal for Dealing with Food Problem.

London, Nov. 15.—Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade in parliament today outlined the government's proposal for dealing with the food problem. The speech of Mr. Runciman had significance, aside from its actual context, as showing that the government is looking forward to protracted hostilities and foresees the necessity of timely measures for insuring the national food supply by an effective organization of national resources in a similar manner to that adopted in enemy countries. Mr. Runciman in his speech announced the imminent appointment of a food controller with full power over all departments concerned in food supplies and immediate measures to restrict the luxurious use of sugar, to prevent waste and the making of large profits in potatoes and milk and for forbidding the milling of pure wheat flour. He said also that the government would ask new powers under the defense of the realm act to deal with all attempts to exploit public necessities. These measures, Mr. Runciman explained, would be temporary but if they were found insufficient it might become necessary to have recourse in food tickets.

The speech of the president of the board of trade was welcomed in all parts of the house. Sir Edward Carson, on behalf of the opposition and George J. Wardle, for the laborites, agreed that the house was ready to grant the power asked without the formality of a bill.

SOLDIERS GOT RELIEF FROM SORENESS

Boys On the Border Relieved Their Pains and Aches with Sloan's Liniment

Once upon a time Norman Jones, serving in the National Guard at El Paso, returned to camp after a strenuous 15 mile hike, foot-sore and leg-weary. He had not been long in active service and his shoulders, back and limbs felt the after-effects of marching. Remembering Sloan's Liniment, Jones applied it to the sore spots and went to bed. He writes: "I awoke the next morning feeling fine; in fact I had entirely forgotten about the hike and went out for a four-hour drill in the sun as spry as ever." Private Jones passed the experience along, and many a boy on the border relieved the agony of sprains, strains, bruises, insect bites, cramped muscles, rheumatic twinges, etc., by the use of Sloan's Liniment. Easily applied without rubbing. At all drugists, 25c, 50c and $1.00.

MAKING DIMES AND DOLLARS GO FURTHER

In these days of high living cost matters which relate to household or personal economies take on new interest. When price levels for necessities are lower than in the past, little economies of the home do not count for so much and the ways to accomplish the savings are given little thought. But now, with so many of the absolute necessities selling at prices fully 100 per cent higher than normal these ways of saving take on new importance.

Not with the idea of being able to suggest much particularly new, but with the thought of bringing to notice economies which can be practiced and may have been forgotten, the Journal proposes to give space to economy suggestions from time to time. Readers of this paper are asked to send in suggestions or inquiries.

If you know of some means of cutting down your fuel bill; if you know of some wholesome and nourishing dish which can be prepared from kitchen materials which are often thrown away; if you have a plan not commonly followed of re-making garments which are outgrown—in fact, if you have any suggestion which will be helpful to others in cutting down their living costs, they will be welcomed for publication.

It is not the intention to use this column regularly or permanently but just so long as it is thought to be useful to readers of the Journal. At a time like this, with the winter season at hand, there is an obligation resting upon people not merely to practice certain economies of living but to let other people know about the methods of economy that they have been able to devise. By such interchange of suggestions a large number can be helped and so people who are interested in the subject may find ways and means of having their dimes and dollars go further. Some of the items below are from current magazines and are printed without individual credit.

When cooking a creamed vegetable, such as celery, cabbage, etc., cook the vegetable in the lower part of the double boiler and make the cream sauce in the upper part. This will effect a saving in gas and the sauce does not require constant watching.

Tin cans may be burned in the furnace, thus saving the expense of having them removed when a number have accumulated.

The fat used in deep fat frying may be used for subsequent fryings if while still hot it is strained into an earthen crock thru two layers of very fine muslin. It should then be cooled and sealed and placed in the refrigerator.

In making lemonade run the lemons thru a food chopper. It is possible in this way to make a quart of lemonade with 1 lemon.

Economize in fuel cost by baking apples, gingerbread, etc., at the same time that bread is being baked. In baking potatoes cut the larger ones in two. They will cook in much less time.

Mix a quart of olive oil with a quart of refined cottonseed oil. The mixture has the delightful flavor of olive oil, together with its color, and government analysis shows that the food value of cottonseed oil is little less than olive oil.

To make an economical scrap book glue a piece of colored paper of tapicoca with cold water, put over the fire and stir, adding more water as it boils, making it of the consistency of paste. This glue is cheap, odorless and excellent.

When ironing with gas get a strip of metal large enough to hold four or five irons and heat the irons on this. A single gas burner will heat the metal from end to end. Turn over the irons a metal pan to save the top heat. Water may be heated by placing the teakettle on top of this pan.

The life of a pair of rubbers may be doubled by packing a half inch layer of crushed tissue paper in the heels of the rubbers. This forms a soft cushion between the hard shoe heel and the rubber and prevents wear, and the paper cushion adjusts itself to the uneven surface of a worn shoe heel, thus giving a perfect fit.

MR. WERRENATH GAVE SPLENDID PROGRAM

Famous Baritone Delighted Audience at Grand Opera House Wednesday Night.

One of the noteworthy musical events of the fall season in the city was the appearance of Mr. Reinald Werrenath, the celebrated baritone, at the Grand Opera House last night. This was Mr. Werrenath's initial appearance in the city and the many good things, which had been spoken of him, thru his friends, and by the press notices, were verified in the most excellent program of last evening. He came under the auspices of Robert Boyd, who thus placed local music lovers under obligations.

It was a genuine pleasure to hear Mr. Werrenath. Possessed with a voice of beautiful quality, and an indefatigable charm of delivery, he won instant favor with the audience. He had put aside mannerisms, flights of imaginary voice effort, and soothed and magnetized his audience by the soulfulness of his singing. Because of his wide range of voice and its deep sonorous qualities, the singer is especially gifted for oratorical work and naturally portrayed his artistic ability along this line. Mr. Werrenath possesses the gifted faculty of digging deep into the author's intent of his production, and his interpretations might well be coveted by singers who wish to become masters of the voice.

From the initial song by the celebrated Handel "Hear Me, Ye Winds and Waves," with its wonderful opportunity of musical imagination, until the stirring notes of "Danny Deever" died away the audience was carried from one musical height to another. Encores were demanded after each group, by the enthusiastic audience. The German group was finely interpreted and especially praiseworthy was "Laut her Welt" by Greiz. In the second group, Mr. Werrenath found a big response from the audience in his presentation of Massenet's "Herodiade."

Group four was representative of city life in New York City, a composition by Deems Taylor and words by Mr. Towne, now editor of a well known publication of that city. The song cycle was written especially for Mr. Werrenath and its composition was something new to many hearers last night.

The American group, which closed the program, left a splendid impression. "The House of Memories" by Florence Alward, was all one could ask in the way of tenderness and pathos and "Fuzzy-Wuzzy" with its combativeness could scarcely have been excelled.

In the person of Mr. Harry Spier, the singer found wonderful support. He certainly knows the art of accompanying and plays all the scores with out the aid of written music. His Italian composition sung as an encore to the third group showed his great talent. Everyone who heard Mr. Werrenath and Mr. Spier last night will welcome them back to Jacksonville.

The program as previously printed was given.

MOOSE OF JACKSONVILLE
PLAN NEW QUARTERS

Matter Placed in Hands of Committee at Special Meeting Wednesday Night—National Director Here.

A special meeting of Jacksonville Lodge No. 1122 Loyal Order of Moose, at the South Sandy street hall Wednesday evening, a committee was appointed to look into the matter of securing new quarters for the meetings of the lodge. The local Moose lodge was instituted three years ago and has a present membership of two hundred. It was announced at this meeting that the charter would again be opened and that a big campaign for membership would soon be in full swing. A membership committee has already been designated by Louis H. Engel, chief dictator of the lodge.

The meeting last evening followed a special lecture by W. Lee Provo of St. Louis, national director of the lodge. The lecture accompanied some illustrative reels, shown at Scott's theater and in addition to describing the work done by the order at the Mooseheart home, Mr. Provo made some reference to the history of the order.

The loyal order of Moose was founded in Louisville, Ky., in 1888 by Dr. James Wilson, who lived to see the lodge with a membership of 10,000. June 1, 1916, the order numbered 610,000. Lodges have been established in all sections of the United States, as well as in Cuba, South America and the Hawaiian Islands.

MR. MAGILL'S ADDRESS
HERE POSTPONED

Fire at Springfield School Building Made Change of Plans Necessary.

Hugh S. Magill of Springfield, Superintendent of Schools, who was announced to speak in Jacksonville last night, did not come because of the school building fire in Springfield. Just before Mr. Magill intended to start for Jacksonville news came that the Ridgely school building was on fire and he could no longer, therefore, come to Jacksonville without being recreant to his duties in Springfield. In all probability another date can be arranged, as representatives of the various charity organizations in Jacksonville are very anxious to have Senator Magill address them on the subject of "Co-operation in Charity Work."

Last Saturday Miss Bergen of Springfield introduced this theme at an address given before the Woman's Club and was the order announced that Mr. Magill would come soon for a night meeting, when an effort would be made to have all the charity organizations represented.

PLANS FOR UNIFICATION OF CITY CHARITY WORK

Committee Named at Wednesday Evening Conference Will Begin Work Toward Merging of All Charity Agencies—Supt. Magill Will Speak At Later Time.

At a conference of charity workers Wednesday evening at the Peacock Inn, the work of unifying charitable activity in Jacksonville was initiated and A. C. Rice, L. O. Vaughn and Dr. Dewey, as a committee of three, were empowered to name a larger committee, which shall work out the details of a plan for co-operation. The conference was called to meet with Hon. Hugh S. Magill, superintendent of the Springfield schools, who was to have addressed a larger meeting later in the evening. The word that Mr. Magill could not come on account of a large school fire reached Jacksonville early in the afternoon. During the luncheon which preceded the conference, a telephone communication was received from Mr. Magill to the effect that he would be able to visit Jacksonville at a later time.

The committee on methods of co-operation will report to a second conference, to be called at the time of Mr. Magill's visit. A. C. Rice, vice president of the Associated Charities, presided at the conference of Wednesday evening. The word from Mr. Magill was received by Mrs. J. K. C. Pearson, president of the Woman's club. Miss Weller, the city matron, was heard in a brief talk, as was Mrs. David Reid, chairman of the social service committee of the Woman's club. Dr. F. S. Hayden made a brief address, as did L. O. Vaughn.

Supt. H. A. Perrin, of the Jacksonville schools, offered several suggestions of interest. Mr. Perrin emphasized the need of united effort on the part of all charitable agencies, in order that the field of work be well understood and that sufficient help be given those in need, but not enough to pauperize the persons aided. The central agency should be a clearing house of information, said Mr. Perrin, and should have the cooperation of all bodies doing charitable work in the city. It is necessary that those in charge of unified charity activity, be well qualified, able to devote their entire time to the work in hand. Mr. Perrin laid stress upon the need for an adequate financial plan, that the work of relief be placed upon an efficient basis, that the necessary researches may be made and proper records kept.

GRAND LODGE L. O. O. F.

TO MEET IN SPRINGFIELD. The two Jacksonville Odd Fellow lodges are planning to send delegations to Springfield next week to attend the seventy-ninth annual convention of the Grand Lodges of Illinois, which will be convened Tuesday, Nov. 21.

It is estimated that there will be present 2,500 paid delegates and nearly 2,000 visitors, some of whom will be members. The sessions will continue until Thursday, November 23 and will at once begin registering in the office of Grand Secretary John H. Sikes. The visitors will be quartered at the various hotels and private homes throughout the city.

The grand lodge sessions proper will be held in representatives' hall in the state house. In connection with this meeting the sixty-seventh grand encampment and meeting will be held in the senate chamber in the state house, also the thirty-second session of the Rebekah assembly in the First Christian church.

An interesting program has been prepared for the occasion which promises to eclipse similar programs in the past.

COLONIAL ART EXHIBIT BY TRINITY CHURCH LADIES

It may not be known to all that in Jacksonville is to be found a large amount of Colonial art but such is the case and the ladies of Trinity church have spent a great deal of time and effort to assemble these treasures as the attraction at an art exhibit to be given in the rooms of the Guild Hall of the Church on Thursday, November 23rd, both afternoon and evening. The chairman of the committees having this work in charge are as follows:

Books—Miss Anne Jackson.
China—Mrs. W. T. Capps.
Jewelry—Mrs. Bellat.
Needle work—Miss Fannie Wake.
Furniture and Pictures—Mrs. Langston.
Decorations—Mrs. Cox.
Refreshments—Mrs. Fawcett and Mrs. Yates.

A member of the Guild has written in this regard: "As our country grows its years around it and assumes among the nations of the earth a dignity that comes only with a respectable antiquity, the interest of its people turns more and more to the early days when our history was in the making and when, as we so love to think, the land was populated with heroes. But along with these heroes and often times showing as much heroism as they, were their wives, women in every sense of the word, charming, womanly and with the same deep love for beautiful things that we find in the breasts of our women of today. Much that they had to do with was of a domestic nature, and the domesticity of their surroundings often found its verisimilitude in the artistic output of the times, yet over them hangs the romance of a departed age and an age that means much to each of us as Americans and individuals."

BEARDSTOWN BOY KILLED BY AUTO

Chester Blanset Ran in Front of Car He Did Not See Approaching.

Beardstown, Ill., Nov. 15.—Chester Blanset was killed on the street in this city Tuesday afternoon, when he was run over by an automobile owned by A. B. Jockisch of DuPont Springs. The boy, who was 12 years old, had been riding on a load of hay and when he reached his own home he slid down at the rear of the load and as he darted toward the sidewalk ran squarely in front of the automobile. It was impossible for the driver to stop and the car struck the boy and ran over him. He was taken up in an unconscious condition and taken to the office of Dr. T. J. Schaefer, where he died a short time later. The circumstances were such that Mr. Jockisch was not blamed for the accident.

CHARLES ADKINS' SON DEAD. Jacksonville friends of Charles Adkins of Bement, former speaker of the Illinois legislature, have heard with sorrow of the death of his son, Reuben Adkins, at the family home. The young man, who was twenty years of age, died suddenly as a result of injuries from the kick of a mule. Mr. Adkins was away from home at the time, traveling with a party of politicians in the south. He was reached at New Orleans and left the party there in order to return to Bement and attend the funeral of his son.

Young Adkins graduated last year from the Bement high school and had been a very popular student and prominent in various activities.

HIGHER RAILROAD FARES MAY COME

Interstate Commerce Commission Ruling Gives Authority For Increase to Two and Two Fifths Cents per Mile.

According to report the interstate commerce commission has issued an order which will make it possible for the railroads of this state to increase their passenger rates to two and two fifths cents per mile beginning January 15. If this order goes into effect the rate from Jacksonville to Springfield will be 95c instead of 68c and the fare to Chicago will be $5.19 instead of the present rate of $4.32. This said that notice of the proposed advance will be filed with the Illinois utilities commission at least thirty days prior to January 15. Some litigation is likely to follow, as it is said further that the utilities commission will suspend the rates ordered by the commerce commission. Then the question will have to be settled as to the right of the state commission to overrule the acts of the interstate commission.

As it is now, a passenger may buy a ticket from Jacksonville to East St. Louis and then pay fare across the bridge at a cost of about 30 cents less than if a ticket had been purchased direct from Jacksonville to St. Louis. The same thing holds true in buying a ticket from Chicago to East St. Louis. The passenger who follows this plan and then crosses from East St. Louis to St. Louis by a direct car can save nearly $2 by comparison with the cost of a ticket direct from Chicago to St. Louis. The same thing applies to cities like Hannibal and Keokuk, and the order of the interstate commerce commission is understood to be based on a desire to do away with discriminatory charges.

I. C. STUDENTS THANK LOCAL MERCHANTS

Generous Aid Made Special Train to Decatur Possible.

The students of Illinois college held a regular weekly meeting Wednesday when resolutions were adopted expressing thanks to the merchants of Jacksonville whose enthusiasm and interest made it possible to have a special train last Saturday to Decatur on account of the Millikin game. Merchants of the city were well represented in the big delegation that went to Decatur and others who could not join the excursionists gave aid in raising the funds. The resolutions adopted were in the following language:

"Be It Resolved, That the student association of Illinois college extend to the merchants of Jacksonville their sincere appreciation and gratitude for the hearty support in spirit and money extended to the students and team in connection with the special train to Decatur and the Illinois-Millikin game there Nov. 11, 1916, and be it

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be given to both the Jacksonville daily papers for publication."

AUTOISTS MET WITH PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Richey and daughter Margaret, Mrs. Frank Richey and son Robert of Rushville, came to Jacksonville Wednesday in their automobile to visit Mrs. Nora Moore on North Main street. In passing thru Beardstown they met with an accident which resulted in some severe bruises for all the party. They drove across a railroad track and the car ran forward to another crossing in such a way that all the occupants were thrown from the car seats. Mrs. Jacob Richey received the most painful injuries as she struck the roof of the car in such a way that her spectacles were broken into many pieces and some of them were driven into her face.

FIRE PREVENTION DAY HELPFUL

Widespread Observance Shows Beneficial Results in Many Cities

The recent widespread celebration of Fire Prevention Day throughout the United States, gives point to the query as to whether fire prevention is really making good in actual results.

Here is a part of the answer. New York City, in 1915, had 1,010 fewer fires than in 1914, and its aggregate losses showed a decrease of $2,460,793 from those of 1914. Its per capita loss was $1.06, or $32 less than was known before; its loss per fire was $140.58 less than the lowest previous record. The results are generally attributed to New York's fire prevention work.

Chicago has a Bureau of Fire Prevention and Public Safety with extensive activities. Translated into figures it appears that Chicago, in 1915, enjoyed a decrease of 1,238 in the number of fires and of $906,605 in total fire losses as compared with 1914.

Boston's Metropolitan District (including the City of Boston and 25 neighboring towns) has made a remarkable showing, since appointing its Fire Prevention Commissioner in 1914. Comparative figures for the single month of June, are as follows: In 1914, 1,337 alarms; in 1915, 935 alarms; in 1916, 695 alarms—or a decrease in two years of 64 per cent.

Cincinnati is interested in fire prevention. Its 1914 figures of 2,128 fires and $699,473 in losses were reduced to 1,708 fires and $365,570 in losses for 1915—a reduction of 20 per cent in the former item and nearly 50 per cent in the latter.

Milwaukee now carries on fire prevention work under the direction of its fire department. In 1915, the city had only 1,679 fires as against 2,361 in 1914—a decrease of 29 per cent. Its total fire losses for 1915 were $487,009 as against $777,946 in 1914 and $952,477 in 1913. Milwaukee is convinced that fire prevention pays.

The above, however, are a few of the bright spots and represent but the merest beginning. It must never be overlooked that fire prevention is still confronted by an enormous task. Momentary enthusiasm because of reductions effected in a few cities is somewhat gampened by the reflection that 1915 saw the enormous total of 33,531,227 in the single item of dwelling house fires in the United States. Of this amount, $6,322,813, or $17,323 per day, is directly traceable to defective chimneys and flues—a cause which could have been ascertained and corrected.

JACKSONVILLE BARBERS MAY RAISE ON HAIR CUTS

The raising of the price for hair cuts from 25 to 35 cents is a probability of the near future, according to members of the local barbers' union. The change has been talked of for the past six months but it is only of recent days that the move has been virtually determined upon. The price of all materials used in the barber's trade has been steadily increasing, it is pointed out, and it has long been thought by members of the trade that the twenty-five-cent price was too low to meet operating expenses. Near by places which have put into effect the increased price are Peoria, Springfield, Decatur, and Roodhouse.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

THE JORDANS

(By Ensley Moore)

(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

James Jordan was three things: a Christian, a patriot and a Methodist.

This James Jordan was known as "Father Jordan," because of his early settlement, and of his relation to the Methodist church of Jacksonville, as it was in his log house, standing where the Passavant Hospital now is, on East State street, that the first Methodist church of this place was organized.

The accompanying sketch was drawn to show how the site of Jacksonville looked, absolutely treeless as to the original town, the day it was laid out. Mr. Jordan's house is the one depicted in the foreground, and the State road, now State street, leads west, past the log cabin. The sketch is supposititious, but based on facts and the natural lay of the ground, as any one having a topographical mind can see. The dot to the left, about half way to College Hill, was a little hut, about where the Episcopal church or Academy are.

In their historical accounts of this region, both Chas. M. Eames and Dr. W. F. Short refer to Mr. Jordan as John. That was not his name, it was

James Jordan

Mr. Jordan was born Nov. 15, 1755, and Mary, his wife, was born March 20, 1756. They presumably came from Virginia to South Carolina, for the first definite record of the family is at Union, S. C., about eighty miles from Charleston, where their son John R. is known to have been born. From the Palmetto state the Jordans came to Golconda, Pope county, Illinois, where they remained a short time, and then went to near St. Charles, Mo. The family came from there to Jacksonville, in 1822.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan were the parents of: Jane, born 1784 (?); Jas. M., born 1785; Mary, 1787; Sarah, 1790; Catharine, 1792; John R., 1794; Elizabeth, 1797, and William Scott, 1803.

James died July 9, 1835, and Mary, his wife, died May 2, 1832.

This was "Father Jordan" and his wife.

John R. Jordan lived at his house on North West street, opposite the old City Mill—where the Creamery now is, from 1828 until his death in 1887, at which time he was ninety three years of age.

William S. Jordan

W. S. Jordan, third son, and youngest child of "Father" Jordan, was born in St. Clair county, Illinois, near the old Shiloh church, the first place of regular Methodist preaching in Illinois, May 10, 1803. He came to this place with his father in 1822, to the Hardin lot.

Mr. Jordan was married Nov. 2, 1803, to Miss Eliza Hill, who was born in Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 18, 1807. They were the parents of: James, Robert, John Fletcher, Mary E., Henry B., William Harrison, Sarah Jane, Eliza Ellen, George Hardin and Charles Watson.

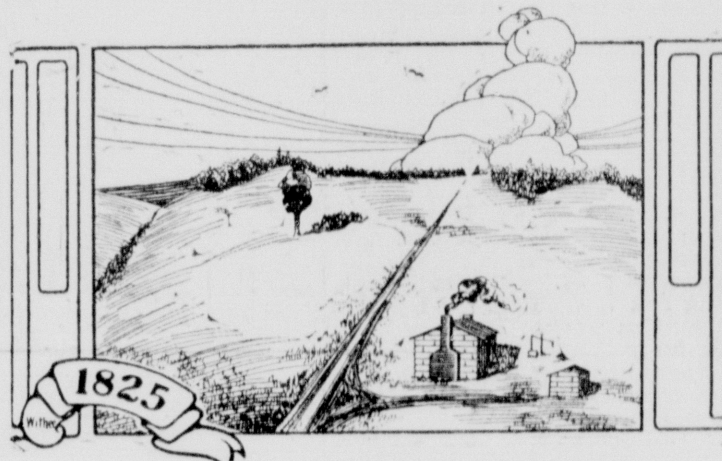

John Fletcher married Cynthia A. Williamson; James married Emeline Frances Falconer; Henry Harrison married Mary Alice Bridgman. He enlisted in the 115th Regt. Ill. Vols., and died in hospital at Nashville, Tenn., March 5, 1863. Thos. A. Craig married Eliza Ellen Jordan; Wm. Harrison Jordan married Mary Grund; of Beardstown; George Hardin married Elizabeth Angel; Edmund Blackburn married Sarah Jane Jordan; and Charles Watson Jordan married Mary Brownell. Robert and Mary Jordan died young.

Wm. Scott Jordan died Nov. 17, 1878, and Eliza (Hill) Jordan, his wife, died August 26, 1890.

Mr. Jordan served in the Black Hawk War, as his father had done in the conflict of 1775-1781.

Six grandsons of "Father" Jordan served in the Civil War: Richard, son of John R., in an Oregon regiment; Henry B., who gave his life, in the 115th Illinois; Wm. Harrison in Co. G., First Mo. Cav.; and George Hardin in the 145th Ill. Besides these, two Thomas boys went from Rock River, Illinois. Surely this record of the family in four wars ought to attest its patriotism and self sacrifice.

Mr. W. S. Jordan was a great church man, serving forty two years as Superintendent of a Sabbath

Jacksonville in 1825.

Mr. Jordan served in the Revolutionary War, as his pension certificate, dated May 19, 1835, and signed by C. A. Harris, acting Sec. of War, shows. This document is now possessed by W. H. Jordan, grandson of "Father Jordan" generally known as "Tip" Jordan.

Father Jordan had a double log cabin on the Hardin-Passavant lot as his residence here in 1822, and in it, Eames says: "The statement is undisputed that the first Morgan county church was organized in 1822 by a few persons who held their meetings for worship in this famous large log cabin of 'Father' Jordan."

John R. Jordan

"Uncle" Johnnie Jordan, as he was familiarly called, was born in South Carolina, as above stated, and came west with his parents. During the time they lived in Missouri the War of 1812 came on, and the Indians became very troublesome and dangerous, so Mr. Jordan, then a youth, enlisted in a company under Daniel Boone, the great Kentuckian, who had come to live in Missouri. They served under a Gen. Howard, and crossed into Illinois and built a fort at Peoria. They then returned to Missouri and built a fort on Buffalo creek, near the present town of Louisiana—now defended by the residence there of Champ Clark. During this war an uncle and cousin of Mr. Jordan, both civilians, were killed by the Indians. Mr. Jordan became sick, owing to the hardships and exposures, and did not re-enlist, at the end of his term. Shortly after, his company passed up the Mississippi, and were fired upon by British, where Quincy now is. Mr. Jordan's brother being killed. After the war Mr. Jordan moved back to Buffalo Creek and returned to farming, which has been the family pursuit.

Mr. Jordan was three times married, and was the father of: Richard T., James M., Helen S., (Mrs. Pickens and Mrs. Knox), and Wm. F., who died in infancy. James M. Pickens was a son of Helen S. school. He was also a member of the first "class" formed in the Methodist church of Jacksonville.

Away back yonder the Jordans were, some at least, Democrats. Some were whigs. But all who survived became Republicans, and they took interest in politics as they had in the church.

The William Scott Jordan family mostly lived north of Jacksonville, in the Ebenezer neighborhood.

In cholera times Wm. S. and John R. were undismayed, and in the early visit of that terrible scourge they went out among the suffering and took care of them when many fled from the danger. Wm. S. also, notably, took care of a virulent and fatal case of erysipelas, well known in his neighborhood. The Jordans were of value to the communities in which they were placed.

William Harrison Jordan

Among the best known of the present generation of this family is William Harrison. He has had much to do in Republican party matters, and has carried the standard of the party in this county. He is a genial and attractive man, and, as stated above, he has served his country on the tented field. He endured the severities of "critter-soldier" service in South West Missouri, until he was disabled in the line of service, and had to come home, being a sufferer to a greater or less extent ever since. He is getting along toward the Sunset Land, but his face is bright, his voice cheery, and he is following the Great Leader, as his people have done for so long.

An Unmarked Grave

There used to be a country burying-ground, out at the corner of the Mound Road and what is known as "Lover's Lane"—at the south west corner. There "Father" Jordan and his wife were laid, and there their dust lies, unmarked and unknown, until the last Great Day.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD BEFORE WINTER

Free Yourself from the Menace of Bad Health When the Cold and Wet Sets In. Sufferers from Catarrh, Rheumatism and Eczema are Worse in Winter. Take S. S. S. Now.

Advice of this character has been given by our trained specialists year after year as summer began to wane and the coming of fall heralded the time when storms and cold are near. We repeat this warning here. Sufferers from catarrh will undoubtedly find the symptoms much aggravated as winter approaches. With the first chill blasts the Rheumatism lets itself be felt. There are forms of winter eczema—one in particular—called tetter, that causes real suffering when cold weather comes. The mere aches and minor pains of rheumatism not only change in winter, but the changes are apt to be so decided in their violence as to cause the most intense suffering. Horrible aching pains in the limbs, in the back, in the joints, even rheumatic pains in the head and face sometimes supposed to be neuralgia. Catarrh is back again, more intense than last winter with the continual dripping of phlegm in the nose and throat, the stopped air passages and the foetid odor from the breath. Is it not a common-sense thing to do to avoid these troubles, to eradicate them from the system when it can be so easily done with a positive remedy such as S. S. S.? Remember, first of all, that the troubles we mention are blood troubles—deep-seated ones. Look at the man who recommends lotions, salves and local medicines. The trouble must be washed out of the blood. Thousands of people have been permanently relieved of blood and skin disease of every kind by the use of S. S. S., and many of those who, perhaps, at first did not find the results entirely satisfactory wrote our physicians a full statement of their case, and a little advice hastened the relief. The only reason for wanting you to write us is that we may use every effort to see that you get the best result from the medicine. You can then help us by advising your friends to use S. S. S., which you will know from experience is all we claim for it. You can write with the assurance that all correspondence is held in strictest confidence, and that our physicians will give you helpful advice without charge. For sale at all drug stores. Refuse substitutes. Write the Swift Specific Company, Medical Department, Room 14, Atlanta, Ga.

CANADIAN LETTERS ARE MADE PUBLIC

Notes Exchanged Between Premier and Gen. Hughes Are Published.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 15.—Letters exchanged between Sir Robert Borden, Canadian premier and Sir Sam Hughes, whose resignation as minister of militia was requested, made public here showed the appointment of Sir George Perley as overseas minister of militia led to the differences between the premier and Sir Sam Hughes. In forwarding the resignation Sir Sam intimated that the Canadian premier wasted his time listening to the complaints of disappointed people.

More than a year ago, he said, he understood the premier "had it in contemplation to get Sir George Perley in control in England."

Finally he regretted to have "heard on excellent authority that you had it in contemplation for some time to retire to the supreme court of Canada by an arrangement with the present incumbent of the chief justice-ship and hand over the Canadian prime minister'ship to another under whom it is well known I would not serve."

RAILWAY CONFERENCE IS NOT RESUMED

Managers Announce Intention of Fighting Adamson Law to the End in Courts.

New York, Nov. 15.—The interrupted conference between representatives of the nation's railways and their 400,000 brotherhood employees, looking toward an adjustment of their newly formulated differences on the Adamson eight-hour law, was not resumed here. Instead of meeting, the railway managers announced their purpose of fighting the law to the end in the courts while the brotherhood chiefs who remained in the city left for their homes, professing to believe that they may safely rest their cause with President Wilson. Both sides admitted they could not forget the probable outcome of the new controversy. The attitude of the railways was summarized in a statement issued by Eliza Lee at the close of an all day meeting of the railroad representatives. The statement read:

"We are all agreed to fight to the end. The means to be employed were fully discussed and the consensus of opinion was that it was necessary to file suits questioning the constitutionality of the law in every federal district court in which the affected railways operate."

Stone's Statement

Warren S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, summarized the brotherhood's side of the case just before boarding a train for Cleveland. The other chiefs left for their homes last night and this morning. Mr. Stone said:

"The situation is closed insofar as we are concerned. We are not at all alarmed. We know what President Wilson intended we should have. We know the explanation he made to our 600 chairmen in the white house. We feel confident that if the present law does not give us the eighthour day, the president will give us a law that will. We can't understand the attitude of the railroad managers. They did not file their first suits until a day after election, believing that Mr. Hughes had been elected. Personally I believe they are either whistling to keep up their courage or they are trying to scare the public into sympathizing with them."

Mr. Stone then disclosed the proceedings at yesterday's conference and the plan of action he said the railroads outlined and the conference.

"We asked for the conference," he said, "to reach a working agreement on the operation of the new law. They told us they did not interpret it as meaning that the old schedules, providing for a rate of pay based on the length of a run, were to be continued. They said the old schedules were to be wiped out."

"When they asked us to reach a tentative agreement on this point we told them that it was impossible in view of the fact that our understanding of the law provided for retention of existing schedules. The only differences, we contended, was what the law specifically calls for—the substitution of the word eight for the word ten wherever it appears."

"We refused to discuss further this question when they informed us that the suits they had filed would be permitted to stand during any negotiations we might enter into. They expected us in other words, to argue about something that they did not concede to exist legally."

"We rejected their proposal to join them in an appeal to the attorney general requesting his approval of a plan to defer the operation of the law for thirty days in order that a decision on the suits might be obtained before the law went into effect."

"They were surprised when informed that we would not defend the suits altho a chairman selected by the different brotherhoods in each state will be named as defendant. We told the railroad managers the suits were a government matter and as such would be properly defended by the government. We were informed that the suits would be filed within ten days."

BELGIAN GOVERNMENT HAS TEXT OF DECREE

Was Issued by Germany Subjecting All Belgians to Forced Labor.

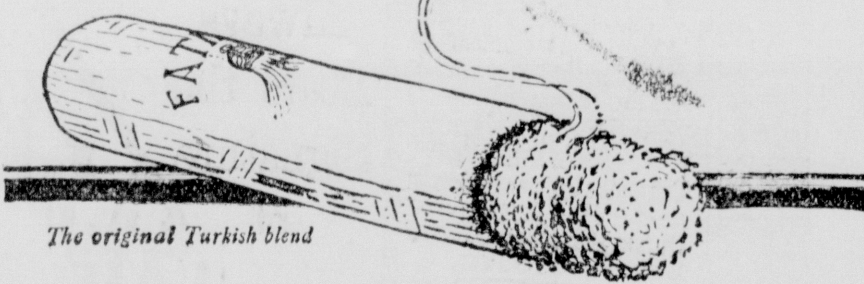

Havre, Nov. 15.—via Paris.—The Belgian government is in possession of the text of a decree issued from German headquarters under date of October 3rd, subjecting to forced labor all Belgians able to work and who, for want of employment or for any other reason are receiving public support. Those subject to this decree, it is pointed out may be compelled to work away from their communities, that is, may be sent to Germany.

The Belgian government contends that if the Germans designed only to combat the idleness of Belgian workmen, it could employ them on public works in the neighborhood of their homes and families.

The Belgian government by every diplomatic means, it is understood, is placing the case before the neutral governments.

WOMAN ADMITS SHE SERVED TERM IN PRISON

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Miss Annie E. Sharpley, who borrowed $80,000 from wealthy Chicagoans without security by her mere powers of persuasion admitted here that she was the same Annie Sharpley who once was sent to the federal penitentiary from Philadelphia for forgery. Miss Sharpley's affairs became public after she filed a petition in bankruptcy scheduling $80,000 in debts and declaring that her extensive poultry farm from which she sold eggs to many wealthy families here had been sacrificed to her longing to have produced a play she had written "Lights Ahead." The entire value of the farm, she said, had been spent in inducing David Belasco to produce the play. Today she admitted her adventure in theatricals had cost her only $800 and that she had never dealt with the New York producer, but with an impostor, who had defrauded her.

Among Miss Sharpley's creditors are Mrs. T. B. Blackstone, who signed notes for $47,000 for her and Herman Cohen, a pawnbroker who declared he had loaned her $20,000 without security. Cohen finally took over the poultry farm as security for $4,000 of the loan. After this Miss Sharpley borrowed $350 from him, he said, to pay the first month's rent on the farm.

OFFICIAL TESTIFIES AT CAR SHORTAGE HEARING

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 15.—Embargoed placed by the Louisville & Nashville railroad against the movement of its coal cars to points beyond its own rails will not be lifted until missing equipment is not only returned, according to C. His declaration was made late today at hearings in connection with an investigation by the interstate commerce commission into car exchange methods in answer to questions by counsel for coal operators located along the lines of the Louisville and Nashville who market their products in the north and northwest.

The attitude of other roads was not brought out, but it is understood to be identical with that assumed by the Louisville and Nashville.

ALL CHARGES AGAINST FARRINGTON FALL FLAT

Both Factions of Mine Workers Admit President of Organization Will be Acquitted.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 15.—Both factions of mine workers attending the trial of President Frank Farrington of the Illinois Division of the United Mine Workers of America freely admitted that the charges against Farrington had fallen flat and that the president of the organization would be acquitted.

The session waxed warm and at times a score of members were on the floor of the special convention hurling verbal charges back and forth.

Farrington in closing his defense admitted receiving $1,000 from Colonel Frank L. Smith of Dwight, then a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor. Farrington accounted for the money explaining it was distributed to miners who worked for Smith's interest.

John P. Walker in a speech declared the president was justified in endorsing a candidate favorable to interests of union labor.

The trial is expected to last several days.

GIRLS! HAVE WAVY, THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Save Your Hair! Double Its Beauty In a Few Moments—Try This!

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fall out; the hair falls out; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy, or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff, no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?—Adv.

New York, Nov. 15.—The seizure by British officials in the Bahamas islands of the 100-ton American Schooner Grisswold L. Keeney of New York is reported by passengers arriving here from Nassau, Bahamas, on the Steamer Esperanza.

The report brought from Nassau is that she was seized as a suspicious vessel, partly on account of the fact that she was seized as a suspicious acid, which led British officials to suspect she intended to assist a submarine from a nation hostile to Great Britain. The Keeney was on a voyage to Valparaiso.

The case is an echo of the Illinois ax murders in which J. B. Moore, a business man, his wife, four children and two visitors met death. Jones charges that Wilkerson accused him of being back of the crime. Jones was a business rival of Moore.
